Abstract. The abstract must be written here with no more than 250 words in Times New Roman, 12pt. This document gives formatting instructions for authors preparing papers for publication in the proceedings of conference. The authors must follow the instructions given in the document for the papers to be published. You can use this document as both an instruction set and as a template into which you can type your own text. The abstract must be written in the present tense and clearly state the novelty of the work. Ideally it will provide a brief context for the study, before describing the scientific approach and some key results in a qualitative manner. It should finish with a sentence to describe the implications for the field. The abstract must not include references, figures or tables. Do not use more than 250 words in the abstract, as it will be included in the on-line version. Very careful wording should be used in the title and in the abstract. A proper title makes it easy to summarize abstract.

Keywords: Five or more keywords or phrases arranged alphabetically and separated by commas. [not capitalized (Except constant terms), plural, separated by commas, no full stop] (Times New Roman, 12pt)
